Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality. Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet. s18tf

Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature. s13tf

HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!—What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

Col. Harden estimates his cattle losses at 75 per cent and is commencing to restock with a rush. He has purchased 1,500 head of stock cattle to put on his ranch in the northern part of Humboldt county, and he expects to ship about 2,000 fat cattle from his Oregon ranch.

Abe Feder, of Rosenthal, Feder & Co., San Francisco shoe dealers, has adopted a unique method of advertising by having his business cards printed with his photograph in one corner. The work was done at the APPEAL office and Abe says it will compare with the San Francisco work in style and general appearance.

The Board of Directors of the State Fair Association, having decided that the nude in art is immodest, indecent and altogether indelicate, will not only blanket their female race horses as they have blanketed Addie Ballou's picture, but they intend to make them wear pantelettes. The trousers of Sister V and Mary Low will be embroidered from knee to fetlock.—Oakland Times.

Canada Defiant.

At Ottawa Canada, Sept. 6th: the Labor Congress adopted the following:

Resolved: That we demand in behalf of this country the right hereafter to elect our Governor instead of having one appointed by the British Government.

Nevada's Native Sons.

The first organization of this kind in the State appears in Reno under the head of Fremont Temple No. 1. This is a step to the front, and the young men who have been thoughtful enough to consider the many advantages in connection with it are to be congratulated.

If they mass their forces in future as well as they commenced, a power will be born in their midst in short order.

The constitution and ritual is compact, and is the work of C. A. Norcross, a native son of Nevada.

There ought to be a temple started in Carson, and the native sons who are now growing up around as could with the assistance of each other, form more enlightened ideas on various vital subjects that they now know little of.

Some of the brightest young men in the State of Nevada can be found right here in Carson, but they don't pull together as they ought to.

The Irish Minstrel.

W. J. Scanlan, the smiling man who sings with a charm peculiarly his own, will appear at the Opera House Wednesday evening, Sept. 24 in his latest and greatest successful Irish comedy drama Myles Aroon.

The scene is laid in County Westmeath, Ireland, at the present day. The hero is a merry and worthy young gardener, and the plot shows the efforts of this gardener, "Myles Aroon" to clear his character of a stain which has been cast upon it by a pair of unscrupulous Irish adventurers. In the jolly and genial Myles, with his light-hearted gaiety and steady flow of wit, Mr. Scanlan finds a congenial representation. He introduces many novelties in the way of business and sings the following songs, written and composed by himself for this play: "You and I Love," "My Maggie," "Live my Love, oh Live," the Swing Song and his always popular "Peek-a-Boo."

Nevada State Fair.

The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Sixth Annual State Fair which is to be held at Reno from September 22nd to September 27 inclusive, and which it hopes will be one of the most successful ever held in Nevada.

President Edward Hewins of the Cherokee Strip Live Stock Association recently said strenuous efforts were being made to influence the President to extend the time set for the evacuation of the Cherokee strip by the cattlemen until December 1st. If the President's order goes into effect by October, it will necessitate during the next 27 days the rushing of fully a quarter of a million of cattle onto the market, which will virtually have the effect of running the price of cattle down a great deal lower than the market has been for years. He said every Representative and Senator from Kansas have signed a memorial asking an extension of time, which has been presented to President Harrison. The Secretary of Agriculture has also interceded.

Governor Waterman's Railroad.

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 15.—A deed was consummated today by which the Cuyamaca Railroad passes entirely into the hands of Governor R. W. Waterman. Thomas Daly retires from the management.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedie Druggist

Bar Silver 115 1-2.

Extraordinary Offer.

The following property is offered for sale: A ranch consisting of 160 acres, 1 large barn, seven sheds, 4 horses, 3 cows, 1 spring wagon, 1 hay wagon, all accompanying harness, 1 small dwelling house, farming implements, etc.

In front of the house is a living spring and several undeveloped springs on the premises. Most of the cereals are grown there with out irrigation. A vineyard of several acres, three years old, is also flourishing. There is enough oak on the place to cut 2,000 cords, which sells for $1.25 on the ground. When hauled four miles it can be sold $2.50 per cord. There is also an abundance of pine on the place. Running by the place is an irrigation ditch, which can be tapped at any time, though it has not been found necessary. The ranch is in alfalfa, too high for malaria and too low for frosts.

The owner is a sailor, and his love for the sea has prompted him to dispose of his property and go abroad. The fact that he is not a business man explains why the place has not been advertised and brought to public notice before. It will be sold exceedingly cheap for cash.

Any person addressing C. N. APPEAL office, Carson City, Nev., will receive a prompt reply, with further particulars.

Horrible Mishap to a Circus Man.

DENVER, Sept. 16.—The circus which exhibited here last week was delayed on the road near Barclay. A "hustler" sitting on top of one of the cages with his legs dangling attracted the attention of a lion. The beast reached its claws through the bars, fixed its nails in near the knee and stripped the flesh from the knee to the heel. Before the poor fellow could be released it was necessary to pry the beast's jaws open with iron bars.
